Mrs. Ines Jeschke, Painting Professor at SBG Dresden

Ms Ines Jeschke is a Master Painter appointed and affirmed expert for the painting and varnishing trade by the Dresden Chamber of Crafts. She started her painting career in the father's painting company where she worked for 7 years. Thanks to her studies in Business and Management, she has been involved also in the commercial side of the painting trade with the role of technical advisor and sales manager for a manufacturer of paints, varnishes and plasters within the RELIUS - BASF Group. Since 2010, she is the head of the Dresden Master Painting School at SBG Dresden mbH and a lecturer in the areas of business administration, human resources, marketing and communication. She is also a member of the board and deputy master of the Guild of Dresden of Painting and Painting Crafts. As part of the EUROPA-MEISTER project consortium, she has been deeply involved in the draft of the innovative European Meisterbrief as one of the main project's result.

Ms. Lina Küng, young Master Painter

Lina Küng started her education at the Rudolf-Steiner school in Vienna. During her eleven years there, she gained extensive insights into different professions and the artistic aspect, which she has always really liked. In order to learn new techniques and to further develop her skills, she attended the Masterclass for Painting and related trades at the HTL Baden this year. Amongst other things her interest in calligraphy was really supported, and she could contribute to a few font templates for the e-learning script of the Europa-Meister. International exchange with people and cultures of other countries has also always played a big role for her, and in the past she has been on exchange/internship in Spain and Russia. This year, she got the opportunity to take part in the 21st International Traditional Humanitarian Painting Campaign in Slovenia and also in the short-term joint staff training event of the Erasmus+ project "EUROPA-MEISTER" in Baden (AT).

Mr. Moritz Kachel, young Master Painter

Moritz Kachel is Meister of painting in Germany and is working in the company of his grandfather. Differently than thought, Moritz started his second career as a painter trainee in 2016 in his grandfather's company. Before that time, he finished his officer license in the German air force and went out after 4 years as a lieutenant. In combination to his apprenticeship, Moritz Kachel started to study Handworks management in Hannover, Germany. This study is specialized for hand workers who will work in higher position and is focused on economics. This should help him to manage all risks and problems of the daily business in his company. All in all, Moritz passed his exams and became a Meister in the beginning of 2019. Since then he is working with his grandfather and his mom as a junior manager and trainee teacher. Currently he is doing his bachelor thesis to become a bachelor.

Mr. Peter Gorecan, young Master Painter

Since his childhood Peter has regularly helped his father with his painting work and attended school in addition. He graduated from the Faculty of Economics (EF) in Ljubljana (SI). During his studies, he tried several kind of works both in and outside the painting sector. He wanted to match his passion in painting with the knowledge gained at the Faculty of Economics and he addressed to decorative techniques. He attended some trainings abroad, especially in Italy, and in Slovenia, and he obtained the title of master painter. In addition to his regular work, he is active in the Club of Young Entrepreneurs of Kranj, and every year he is joining the organizing committee of the international painting campaign in Slovenia. He is part to the current craftsman of the year in Slovenia, especially thanks to the decorative techniques.
